CU classes from today.

CU Correspondent

CHITTAGONG, Oct 9:—The classes of Chittagong University (CU) will resume tomorrow (Wednesday) in a tense situation after the lapse of two months.

CU was closed sine die on August 13 after a bloody clash between Islami Chhatra Shibir (ICS) and Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) that left more than 20 activists injured from the both side.

ICS enforced an indefinite strike on CU campus from August 11 in support of their five-point demands that included rehabilitation of ICS activists in BCL occupied Shahjalal Hall and Shah Amanat Hall, removal of CU Proctor Dr. Tawhid Hossain Chowdhury and recovery of illegal arms from BCL captured hall of the university.
