CHITTAGONG, Oct 13:—Oppression and wringing by Islami Chhatra Shibir (ICS) over the activists of other student bodies in Chittagong University (CU) is increasing rampantly.

More than ten supporters of Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) student wing of the ruling party have been ousted forcibly by the ICS activists from CU hall, according to a front line leader of CU JCD.

"The oppression of ICS in CU campus exceeds all the oppressions in the past in CU campus. They do not even mind to oust one of the student organisation of 4-party Alliance, JCD from the university halls," said a front line leaders of CU JCD who talked to the Bangladesh Observer on condition of anonymity.

On the otherhand ICS activists today beat up one BCL activist at Half-crossing area of the university, according to our university sources. While Manik, a student (See Page 15 Col. 3) of Economics Department was returning from the university. ICS activists put down him from a bus at Half-Crossing area and beat brutally.

Meanwhile, the President and General Secretary of CU BCL today foil under attack of ICS activists. When Jilur Rahman Jewel and Nasir Haidar Babul the President and GS of CU BCL respectively came to the Railway Station of the university the ICS supporters behaved very rudely on them and chanted indecent slogan against BCL and AL said our sources.

CU BCL President said, it is much unfortunate that ICS leaders and activists are now acting like the authority of CU and committing heir wringing works against the general students and activists of other student bodies.

But CU ICS President Alauddin Siqudar denied all the allegations against them.
