

MAY 12 2002

THE BANGLADESH OBSERVER

DU confers Ph.D to 9, M. Phil to 10 researchers

The Dhaka University Syndicate has conferred Ph.D degree to nine and M.Phil to ten researchers, reports UNB.

Following recommendations of the Academic Council, the degrees were conferred recently at a meeting of the DU Syndicate held with Vice-Chancellor Prof Anwarullah Chowdhury in the chair.

Those who were conferred Ph.D degree are: MM Rizaul Islam from Bengali department, Abu Yusuf Mohammad Nesaruddin from Islamic Studies department, Muhammad Abdullah from Arabic department and Jafar Ahmad Bhuiyan from Persian Language and Urdu department, Khursid Nahar, Selima Begum and Tahsina Rahim from Botany department, Shah M Mahfuzur Rahman from Institute of Nutrition and Food Science and Ashraful Islam Chowdhury from Marketing department.

Besides, Marzia Sarker from Bengali department, Abdul Mukit Kabil from History department, Muhammad Nasiruddin from Arabic department, Nur-Un-Nesa from Islamic History and Culture department, Kazi Khaleda Yasmin and Sabiha Ferdous from Political Science department, Ayesha Mahmuda from Psychology department, Mahbuba Khatun Minu from Zoology department, Ferdous Akhter of Applied Chemistry and Chemical Technology and Nahid Sultana from Chemistry department were conferred M.Phil degree, said a press release.