DU student expelled

Varsity Correspondent

The Dhaka University authorities on Monday temporarily expelled a student of Philosophy Department from the university on charge of assaulting two other students.

The university authorities said Ziaul Huq, a third year student of Philosophy Department attacked Nurul Islam Khan Eshan and Parvez Chowdhury. As per the written complaint the authorities took the decision.

Campus sources said Zia along with some cadres of Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) abducted Eshan and Parvez from a procession of Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) and severely beat them up in front of the Central Library. The JCD-men tried to take them to Sir AF Rahman Hall.

Having tips police rescued them from on the way to the dormitory.

Later the victims lodged the complaint with the university authorities.
