Police raid Fazlul Haq Hall

Varsity Correspondent

Police on Tuesday conducted a fruitless raid at the Fazlul Haq Muslim Hall in Dhaka University as the outsider terrorists, anticipating the raid, escaped from the hall a couple of hours before the incident.

According to the hall sources, the terrorists returned to the hall immediately after the raid. Police stormed the hall at around 2 am in the morning but failed to arrest anyone. No arms and ammunition were recovered during the operation.

The raid was carried out following an untoward incident which took place at the office of the Hall Provost during his presence on Sunday.

BCL leader Elan, while talking to the Provost, received head injuries as a group of outsiders beat him with a rifle butt.

A three-member probe body had been formed to investigate into the incident.

Hall sources said that the hall had been under the control of Iqbal Hossain Apu of the Madaripur-Shariatpur Group of BCL.
