Education Minister ASHK Sadeque visited Dhaka University campus on Tuesday to have a view of "The Shadhinatar Sangram" (The Struggle for Independence)—a sculpture depicting the protracted liberation struggle of the country from 1952 to 1971, reports APB.

Vice-Chancellor of DU Prof. AK Azad Chowdhury, Pro Vice-Chancellor Prof. Shahadat Ali and treasurer M. Shamsul Haq were present.

During his visit Shamim Shikder, who is doing the sculpture informed the Minister about the progress of the work. The minister urged the university authority to maintain the dignity of the sculpture and uphold the spirit it is portraying.

The sculpture, which is being installed at Fuller Road adjacent to the Pro Vice Chancellor's official residence, will be unveiled at a function by Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina on March 7.

Later the Minister visited the progress of the on going construction work of Arts Building and Science Annex Building.
