University Computer Centre (RUCC). the only one computer centre of the university, is faced with multifarious problems, including shortage of personal computers (PC). inadequate funds, accommodation problem and shortage of staff. reports BSS.

The Computer Centre was set up at the second floor of the First Science Building in 1985. The centre has only 37 PCS and three dot printers but most of them are University (RU) can not use the computer centre. Even students of Physics, applied physics, communication technology and Computer Science Department are also deprived of this facility.

At present only 250 persons can use the Computer Centre, center officials said. adding there is no generator facility in the computer centre. As a result, in case of load shedding the users of computer and the students of masters in thesis groups only have permission to use the centre.

RUCC infected with numerous problems

RAJSHAHI. Feb 25:-Rajshahi   General students of Rajshahi

Teachers of various departments, Ph D and M Phil fellows and printers. but most of them are not suitable to work. users complained.

sary programme which are essential for researchers are not available in this centre.
that the internet connection of this centre is very slow and the necessary the users of computer have to wait for electricity.

A user of computer centre told