DU hall raided

Varsity Correspondent

Police raided Haji Mohammad Mohsin Hall of Dhaka University at early hours on Saturday but failed to recover any arms and none was arrested during the raid.

Campus sources believe that the raid followed an untoward incident which took place at the TSC area on Friday night.

Two residents of the Mohsin Hall beat up a resident of the Zahurul Haq Hall and stabbed him seriously in front of the TSC. He was immediately taken to the hospital. Sources identified him as Kamal Hossain, a student of the Department of Philosophy and a resident of Room No 212 of Zahurul Haq Hall while they also identified the attackers as Zakir of the Department of Management and Asif of the Department of Political Science, their room number being 343.
