DU student held from hall for alleged crimes

Varsity Correspondent

Police arrested a residential student of the Master Da Suryasen Hall of Dhaka University on Saturday night from the Hall for his alleged involvement in different criminal cases.

Police picked up two other residents of the hall along with Mohsin, the arrested, but released them later. The others were identified as Zillur and Hakim.

Mohsin alias 'Mobile Mohsin' was earlier expelled from the University by the authorities for stabbing a residential student of the same hall. The victim had to be admitted to the hospital with severe stab-wounds.

Sources said that Mohsin and his associates belonged to a certain group of Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL).
