DU VC leaves for US

Varsity Correspondent

Vice-Chancellor of Dhaka University Prof. A K Azad Chowdhury left Dhaka on Thursday for the USA to attend the two-day long convention of Bangladeshi-American Pharmacists' Association beginning on Saturday as the chief guest.

He will also attend the inaugural programme of the Dhaka University Alumni Association in the US and will exchange views with the authorities of Population Sciences Departments of different US Universities regarding the set up of Institutional Link Programmes between the Dhaka University's Population Sciences department and those of the US. These US Universities include Harvard University, Boston University, Brandies University, North Carolina

State University and Johns Hopkins University.

The Vice-Chancellor, during his tour, will be accompanied by the Project Coordinator of the Population Sciences Department of Dhaka University Prof. A.K.M. Noot Un Nabi.

They are expected to return home on August 31.
