Call to help implement book policy

State Minister for Cultural Affairs Prof Jahanara Begum on Wednesday called upon all concerned to lend their all-out cooperation for successful implementation of the National Book Policy, reports BSS.

She was addressing a function at the auditorium of the National Book Centre in connection with distribution of prizes of the book centre for the year 1990 to 1994.

Presided over by director of the centres, the function was also addressed by Cultural Secretary Islam Uddin Malik.

Prof Jahanara Begum said the new book policy would play a vital role to maintain balance between the export and import of books. Readers have to be pioneers, as they are the main force in this regard, she added.
