Teachers to pay one day's salary to PM's fund

Teachers of all the government and non-government educational institutions of the country have decided to pay their one day's salary to the Prime Minister's Relief Fund in aid of the flood-hit people, reports BSS.

The decision was taken at a meeting chaired by Education Secretary Irshadul Huq at the Conference Hall of the Ministry of Education on Thursday.

Leaders of different organisations of the teachers of the country were present in the meeting.

The meeting also decided that the national programme for observance of the World Teachers' Day originally planned for Thursday will now be held on October 9 at 5 pm at the Osmany Memorial Hall.
