British Council books for edn institutions

British Council will donate some 3,000 books to various educational institutions and libraries of the country, says UNB.

The books will be handed over to the authorities at a simple ceremony at the British Council Library in Dhaka at 11 a.m. today (Thursday).

Deputy British High Commissioner in Dhaka Stephen Turner will be present at the programme.

The books will be distributed to English medium schools, universities, libraries in Dhaka, Chittagong, Sylhet, Rajshahi and Khulna.

The British Council with help from Everyman Millennium Library received English versions of World's greatest classic books for donation in Bangladesh.
