

তারিখ ... ০৭ NOV ১৯৯০ ...
পৃষ্ঠা ... ৪ ... কলাম ... ৬ ...

104 ✓

Grand rally of DU teachers Nov 13

Staff Correspondent

The Federation of Bangladesh University Teachers' Associations will hold a grand rally at 'Apprajevo Bangla' at the Arts Faculty of Dhaka University on November 13 at 11 a.m. to demand the reopening of different universities and other educational institutions.

The Dhaka University Teachers' Association urged the University Syndicate to resume the activities of the University by November 7. A general meeting of the association will be held today (Wednesday) at 5-30 p.m. The association in a resolution extended full support to the programme of the grand rally of university teachers on November 13.

Dhaka Medical College Teachers' Association in an emergency meeting on Tuesday expressed deep resentment over the sudden closure of the medical college by the government.

See Page 10 Col. 7

Grand

From Page 1 Col. 6

asking students to leave the hostels and postponing the on-going examinations. The sudden closure of the college without consulting the academic council of the college would hamper the completion of courses by the students.

In a statement the president and general secretary of Lawyers' Committee for Protection of Human and Fundamental rights Dr. Tareq M.R. Chowdhury and Barrister Sayedur Rahman Mia demanded immediate reopening of all universities and educational institutions. They condemned the Education Ordinance 90 as a black law.