College student shot dead at B'baria

Our Correspondent

BRAHMANBARIA, Feb. 18:- One college student named Jashimuddin was shot dead by the dacoits at village Purquril under Kashba thana of Brahmanbaria district on Sunday night.

According to a report a gang of dacoits entered the house of Ishaq Bhuiya at dead of night and started looting. When the inmates of the house raised on alarm two young boys of the neighbouring house came out and resisted the dacoits. The dacoits opened fire on them. As a result Jashimuddin was injured and died on way to hospital. The dacoits however managed to escape safely with the booty worth about Taka one lakh.
