

সংবিধান ... 08 DEC 1991
সংবিধান ... 9 ... 2

BAU teachers, students urged to maintain good atmosphere

AGRI-VARSITY (Mymensingh), Nov. 26.—The Vice-Chancellor of Bangladesh Agricultural University (BAU) Prof. M. Asadur Rahman stated that the universities were considered as the most sacred seat of learning and free-thinking all over the world. For the greater interest of our national advancement as well as development it was imperative to create and maintain an appropriate atmosphere on the University Campus in order that all could perform their duties and responsibilities freely with sense of dignity and satisfaction, he further stated.

The Vice-Chancellor urged upon all concerned including the teachers, students, officers and employees of BAU to concentrate their efforts to achieve this end.

Prof. Rahman was speaking as the chief guest in a function held at the club premises of BAU Employees Association on November 20.

Presided over by Mr. Idris Ali, President of BAU Employees Association, the function was arranged to inaugurate the new colour TV set of employees' club and it was attended by Prof. M. Azizul Haque, President of BAU Teachers Council Mr. Shahid-Dad-Khan, President of BAU Officers' Association, Alhaj M. Ziaul Islam, Treasurer of BAU and Alhaj M. Safiruddin, Chief Medical Officer of the preventive section of BAU as the special guests. Past Presidents and General Secretaries of BAU Employees' Association were introduced in the function. Mr. Abdul Hye spoke on behalf of the past Presidents.

It may be mentioned here that the new Colour TV set was presented to the employees Club by the Vice-Chancellor of BAU.

The function was conducted by Mr. Liakat Ali, General Secretary of the Association.

15