Teacher shortage in Ctg Hill Tracts schools

Our Correspondent

RANGAMATI, May 10:—Most of the schools and colleges in Chittagong Hill Tracts have been facing multifarious problems. As a result the study of the students are being seriously hampered.

According to report most of the posts of teachers of these institutions have been lying vacant for a long time. Due to lack of teachers the number of students is being decreasing every year.

Besides, the institutions lack necessary chairs, benches and tables. For want of benches students are experiencing a serious problem.

Most of the buildings are now in a dilapidated condition. Many cracks have developed in these buildings. Rain water enters into the rooms of these institutions causing much sufferings to the students and the teachers.

The students of these schools and colleges are being deprived of the proper facilities for the library.

The colleges lack hostel facilities for the students.
