BUET fails to reduce session gap

By Our BUET Correspondent

The classes of First Year Engineering and Architecture courses of session 1986-87 of Bangladesh University of Engineering and Technology (BUET) will not begin in September as expected. The Vice-Chancellor of BUET Prof. M.H. Khan told this correspondent on Monday earlier, a committee was formed to examine the possibility of starting the classes in September with a view to reducing the existing one year session gap. The First year BUET students have to wait for more than one year before starting their classes and this condition has been prevailing for about one decade.
