

নথিঃ ..... 30 MAY 2003
পৃষ্ঠা ..... কলাম.....

Poor performance in last public exam None passes from one school, 17 madrasas in Netrakona

From Our Correspondent

NETRAKONA, May 28:—The Education Ministry has called for explanation from 18 schools and madrasas of ten upazilas of Netrakona district about their poor performance as none has passed from these educational institutions in the last public examinations.

The Bangladesh Education Information and Statistics Bureau sources said that none has passed in the public examination in the last year from one school and 17 madrasas of Netrakona district. The Education Ministry has called for explanation from the heads of these educational institutions about their poor performance.

Nobody could come out successful from High School, Purbadhal, Madanpur Shah Sultan Ali Madrasa, Nuabond Alim Madrasa Fulpur Islamic Alim Madrasa, Durgapur, Gonda

Islamia Fazil Madrasa, Kendua, Rajghat D.U Alim Madrasa, Kendua, Kalamakanda Al-Zamiatul Islamia Dakil Madrasa, Rahimpur M. Darus Salam Dakil madrasa, Kalmakanda, Krishnapur Darul Ulam Islamic Alim Madrasa, Khaliazuri, Jahangirpur Alim Madrasa, Madan, Kadam Sree Dakil Madrasa, Madan, Shibprosadpur Dakil Madrasa, Netrakona, Kailati Dakil Madrasa, Barhatta, Mathang Alim Madrasa, Purbadhal, Hironiopotti Fazil Madrasa, Purbadhal, Narandia Dakil Madrasa, Purbadhal, Balakandi Islamic Dakil Madrasa, Atpara and Rongchati Dakil Madrasa, Kalmakanda.

There are 155 high schools, 52 junior high schools and 77 madrasas in ten upazilas of the district.

According to sources, none passed in the public examination (SSC, HSC, Degree Vocational, Business Management, Dakil, Alim, Fazil and Kamil) from 1394 educational institutions of the country in the year 2002. There are 189 schools, 128 colleges, 1077 madrasas, 11 vocational schools and 13 Business Management colleges. Siddique Morshed when contacted a confident source told this correspondent that Education Ministry would stop monthly pay order (M.P.O.) if these educational institutions failed to pull satisfactory result in the future public examinations.