

148
148
148

148

তাৰিখ 15. NOV. 1992

পৃষ্ঠা ১/১ কলাম ১

The Bangladesh Observer

Call to remove curse of illiteracy

President Abdur Rahman Biswas on Saturday stressed the need for massive participation of the educated people in removing the curse of illiteracy from society, says BSS.

The President was talking to a seven-member delegation of the Bangladesh Quomi Madrasa Education Board when they called on him at Bangabhaban.

Moulana Nesaruddin Ahmed led the delegation.

He said, the government is taking allout efforts to spread education and improve its quality and standard.

The delegation submitted a memorandum to the President and was assured that he would to look into them.

Later, a 13-member delegation of the Managing Committee of the Sagardi Rupatila School of Barisal, led by its President Abdus Salam Mia called on the President at Bangabhaban.

Talking to them, the President underscored the importance of setting up more educational institutions and self-earning project to improve the socio-economic condition of the commonmen.

The delegation apprised the President about their problem and he assured to look into them.

The delegation, among others, included Tofazzal Hossain, Mohammad Harun Biswas, Shahidul Alam and Ohidul Islam Badal of the committee.