HC postpones BBS admission for 6 weeks

The High Court Monday postponed for six weeks all MBBS admission, 2006-07, test process, BD News.

The Court issued a rule nisi against concerned authorities, including the health secretary and director general of the health secretariate to explain why admission test results and certificate for admission on October 26 and 27 in 14 government medical colleges should be considered unlawful.

A division bench of Justice Md Ali and Justice Moinul Chowdhury issued the order, following a petition by five admissions-seekers.
