

Teachers urged to make literacy plan a success

BOGRA, Feb. 16.—President Abdu Sattar today called up on the teachers to put in their all out efforts for the success of the mass literacy programme initiated by the late President Ziaur Rahman, reports BSS.

He said "with your participation, this much needed programme for national development could be geared up and thus the nation could be freed from the curse of illiteracy".

The President was addressing the conference of Bangladesh Teachers' Association at the Community Hall here.

Presided over by Mr. Abdul Mannan, President of the Association the conference was also addressed by Information and Education Minister Mr. T.H. Khan.

President Sattar said, the teachers of the country were not only shouldering immense responsibility in promoting education, but also contributing towards shaping up the youths as ideal citizens.

He urged the teachers to be watchful against indiscipline in the educational institution so that atmosphere congenial to education could be maintained.

Referring to the grievance put forward by the Association the President said that some demands had already been fulfilled and the rest would receive due consideration from the concerned Ministry.
