Varsity teachers observe work abstention

Varsity Correspondent

Teachers of the seven universities in the country observed a full-day work abstention on Wednesday at the call of the Federation of Bangladesh Teachers Association (FBUTA).

FBUTA, a joint body of the Teachers Associations of Dhaka University, Chittagong University, Islamic University, Rajshahi University, Agriculture University, BUET and Jahangirnagar University, gave the call for work abstention in protest against the Government move to amend the University Ordinance 1973.

Classes of Dhaka University were not held and offices of the teachers remained closed due to the work abstention on Wednesday.

All examinations were exempted from the programme.
