

Arts College transferred to DU

The Government has decided to transfer the Bangladesh College of Arts and Crafts Dhaka to the Dhaka University to convert it into a constituent institute of the university. An official announcement said in Dhaka on Thursday reports BSS.

Under the transfer order all assets and liabilities, rights, powers, authorities and movable and immovable property including lands, buildings, machinery will be transferred to and vested in the University of Dhaka.

Every person employed in the College of Arts and Crafts

Continued on page 12 col. 5

Arts College

(Continued from page 1)

Dhaka will become an employee of the University of Dhaka. They will continue to serve under the same terms and conditions and with the same rights and privileges as would have applied to them in their office or service under the College of Arts and Crafts, Dhaka and will continue to do so until such terms and conditions are altered.

The existing budget provisions of the college for 1983-84 will also be transferred to the University of Dhaka through University Grants Commission.