Varsity officers begin work abstention

Varsity Correspondent

Officers of seven Universities went on work abstention for ten-day on Saturday in support of their demands.

Bangladesh Inter-University Officers' Federation (BIUOF), a joint body of the Officers Associations of Dhaka University, Jahangirnagar University, Rajshahi University, BUET, Islamic University, Chittagong University and Agriculture University, gave the call for work abstention in support of their demands which include modification of their pay scale and representation of officers in different authoritative bodies including Senate and Syndicate.

Administrative activities of Dhaka University, BUET and Jahangirnagar University came to a halt on Saturday due to the work abstention by officers, says a Press release.
