Non-govt teachers resuming their duties

The teachers of non-government schools and colleges started resuming their duties at their respective education institutions throughout the country from Tuesday, coordinator of the Teacher's Liaison Action Committee Kazi Faruque told BSS on Sunday night, reports BSS.

The non-government teachers and employees have been joining their duties following a decision of the Liaison Committee to call off their sit-in strike and hunger strike on Friday last in the capital.

Meanwhile, the Liaison Committee expressed its gratitude to all political, parties, professional organisations, cultural groups and people of all walks of life who expressed sympathy and solidarity during the sit-in and hunger strike programmes of the teachers and other employees.
