DU V-C differs

with content of memorandum

Varsity Correspondent

Students of Dhaka University

Journalism Department brought out a silent procession on the campus and submitted a memorandum to

Vice-Chancellor Prof. Emajuddin

Ahamed on Sunday demanding punishment to those responsible for assault of teachers including Department Chief Dr. Arifin Siddique and ransacking department offices.

A large number of students of Journalism Department went to V-

C's residence office and handed over a memorandum to V-C Prof. Emajuddin Ahmed.

Prof. Emajuddin Ahame while talking to students contradicted with some points of the memorandum and said that it is not correct that the university administration and law enforcing agencies were silent spectators during Thursday's violent incident. The university authorities had always tried to stop such violent activities despite its limitation, they added.

Prof. Emajuddin Ahamed assured the students that his administration would take necessary punitive measures against the culprits.
