Group of DU students calls strike today

Varsity Correspondent

A group of students have called for strike in Dhaka University today (Wednesday) in support of their demand for equal opportunities in education and government job.

Action Committee for Resisting Disparity in Education and Service (ACRDES), an organisation of preliminary students of different universities, brought out a procession on Dhaka University campus on Tuesday in support of the strike call.

ACRDES demands equal opportunity in government service for those who have passed the Degree (pass), preliminary and Honours courses.

ACRDES will hold a rally at Aparajeo Bangla at 10 a.m. today.

Meanwhile, another group of students opposed the strike of ACRDES and said it was called without any discussion with DU authorities, DUCSU and student organisations.
