Two outsiders held with pistol at DU hall

Varsity Correspondent

A group of students caught two outsiders with a pistol at Dhaka University Surya Sen Hall on Saturday and handed them over to police.

According to witnesses, two youths engaged in altercation with some students over getting priority in making telephone call from a coin-box telephone set at Surya Sen Hall Gate at about 11.30 a.m. At one stage they tried to flee after having been challenged by the students lining up near the telephone set.

Students caught one of them near the gate and another from the first floor of the hall.

In the face of interrogation they confessed that they are not students of Dhaka University. They went to Surya Sen Hall with an ill-motive.

Students searched them and recovered a pistol from their possession. Of the youths, one is identified as Shahjahan but the other's name could not be known.

Students handed over them to police on-duty near the hall premises.
