Case against election of DU syndicate members likely

Staff Correspondent

A case against the election of three Senate members to Syndicate and one to Finance Committee held in Dhaka University the Senate meeting on Friday is likely to be filed in a day or two.

The elections was held in the absence of 40 members of the Senate who boycotted the Senate meeting protesting the role of the Vice-chancellor and inclusion of some members for the elections violating the rules.

The case is likely to be filed on behalf of twenty-five senate members representing the registered graduates of the university, a Senate member informed.
