GOP sweeps DU Senate polls

Varsity Correspondent

Ganotantrik Oikya Parishad (GOP), backed by Awami League and its allies swept the registered graduates representatives elections of Dhaka University Senate winning all the 25 posts.

The GOP panel defeated ruling party BNP backed White Panel and another panel sponsored by Jamaat-e-Islam and Jatiya Party by a big margin.

The elections were held in two phases, first in twelve centres outside Dhaka on April 30 and at Dhaka University Teachers-Students' Centre on Wednesday. Out of 6336 registered graduate voters, 4002 cast their votes in the election. In total 160 candidates, 25 each from three
