Shaheed Nasim memorial fund set up at DU

Varsity Correspondent

A memorial scholarship fund in memory of Shaheed Nasim Mohsin has been set up in the English Department of Dhaka University.

Mrs Mohsin, mother of Shaheed Nasim Mohsin handed over a cheque for Taka 2 lakh to the Vice-Chancellor Prof Emajuddin Ahmed on Sunday with a view to instituting the memorial scholarship fund under the name of "Shaheed Nasim Mohsin Scholarship Fund" says a Press release.

Out of the income from this money four scholarship at the rate of Taka 5000 each will be awarded every year to four meritorious but poor students of the English Department on the basis of their results.

It may be mentioned that Shaheed Nasim Mohsin was a second year student in Department of English when he took part in the Liberation War. He was killed by the Pakistan occupation army in November 1971 while fighting in the Comilla Sector.

The function was attended among others by Fakhru Alam, Dr. Ekram Hossain and Mrs Mohsin.
