VC postpones admission of 20 students

Staff Correspondent

Vice-Chancellor of Dhaka University Prof. Emajuddin Ahmed has postponed his order on the Admission of 20 students that triggered wide spread protests from the university teachers association and student organisations.

The Vice Chancellor called the chairmen of four departments under Commerce Faculty to a meeting on Saturday and told them to stop the controversial admission of the 20 students to the departments of Accounting, Management, Finance and Banking.

The Vice-Chancellor gave the order for the admission of the 20 students who did not appear in the admission tests. The 20 students went to attend a reception called by the Prime Minister instead of appearing in admission test scheduled on April 15.

The Vice-Chancellor has called a Press conference today (Sunday) to explain his controversial order.
