DU classes resume

Varsity Correspondent

Classes of Dhaka University resumed on Monday after a fifteen-day closure.

The classes were closed and the examinations were postponed due to the indefinite strike of Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD).

On the first day of opening various student organisations including ruling party's student front Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) and BNP's student wing Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) brought out separate processions and held rallies on the university campus in protest against terrorism.

On the other hand the verification of identity cards at some of the halls were not followed by the hall admininistration on Monday.

Only the Mohsin Hall, Suryasen Hall and Jagannath Hall administrations were checking the identity cards of the students at the main gate of the halls and obstructed the outsiders entering those halls.

The hall officials were not even seen at their respective hall gates on Monday.

As per Memorandum Of Understanding (MOU) which was signed among different student organisations including BCL (S-P) and JCD on Thursday the university authorities will continue verification of identity cards at all the university halls for 15 days.
