

Partial list of terrorists submitted to DU V-C

Varsity Correspondent

The lists of some elements who have been disturbing the academic atmosphere of Dhaka University have been submitted to the Vice-Chancellor of the university by different student organisation the last day on Sunday of pur day ultimatum.

The university authorities in order to keep secrecy, however, did not disclose names of person on the list organisations which hae submitted to him "I will not disclose it for the sake of administrative and disciplinary measures against the troublemakers and if I do it then some problems may hamper the total proces," said the Vice-Chancellor while talking to the journalists.

The V-C said that the submission of the lists of terrorists, outsiders and troublemakers by different student orgainsations to the university authorities would be continued for long time with a view to keeping the campus always peaceful.

"Not only student organisation but also the geneal students will be allowed to preper the lists of the troublemakers and submit those to me" said the Vice Chancellor Prof Shahiduddin Ahmed.

He said the lists that would be given to him would be verified by the university authorities whether they were given intentionally to harrass innocent student and then punitive measures would be taken against the alleged person.

"The punitive measures would be taken by two ways one by the university authorities through using proctional rule against the troublemakers and another by the law enforcing agencies against both students and outsiders.

Different student organisations active on the university campus at a meetin with Vice Chancellor Prof Shahibuddin Ahmed on Sunday evening submitted those lists to the V-C with serecy.

The meeting, presided over by the V-C Chanellor, reviewed ove all situation of the campus and discussed the Memorandum of Understanding (MOU), signed by the student organisaion carlier.

The meeting held at VC's residence took some resolutions.

According outsiders will be allowed to stay at the dormitories of Dhaka University and the hall administration will take neceasary measures to oust them from the halls.

The meeting also decided that a non-student leader of any student organisation will be allowed to enter the halls for only their political activites and after their activities he must have to quit the the halls.

The meeting began at 7 p.m. was attended by Ishaq Ali Khan Panna, General Secretary BCL (S-P) Mahbubul Haq shakil, Ajoy Kor Khokon and Bahandu Bapary on behalf of Bangladesh Chhatra League Habib-in Nabi Sohel, General Secretary of JCD A.B. Mosharraf Hossain Nasiruddin Washim and Manir Hossain behalf of Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal and Obaidur Rahman Chunnu, Nurul Islam, Aslam Khan Mohsin Sarker and Mizanur Rahman Palash reprecented Gana Tantrik Chhatra Orya.

See Page 12 Col. 4

Partial list

From Page 1 Col. 3

It may be mentioned here that the Vice-Chanellor of Dhaka University Prof Shhiduddin Ahmed at a meeting on Wednesday gave a 72-hour ultimatum to different student organisations active on the university campus with a view to beringing back peaceful academic stomosphere in the university.

BCL, JCD hold rallies

Meanwhile Chhatra League (BCL) and BNP Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) brought out proces- sions and held separate rallies on the Dhaka University campus on Sunday in support of their demands.

The bcl members held their rally at the Aparajeyo Bangla of the uni- versity which was addressed, among others, by Ishaq Ali Khan, General Secretary of BCL, Shahjahan Alam Saju Mahbubul Haq Shakil and Abdul Woadud Khokon.

Addressing the rally the BCL leaders demands necessary measures on in order to maintain concenial academic atmosphere in the Dhaka University. They also said that they would extend their helping hands to the administation and university au- thorities to stamps out terrosim from the campus.

The BCL leaders accused particu- lar political party of unleashing reion of terror in all the educational in- stitutions of the country in a planned way and urged them to stop such devestating activities for the greate interest of the country.

The JCD members held their rally in front of the DUCSU building of the university. The rally addressed, among others, by Abdul Khaleq, Habib un-Nabi Sohel, A.B.M. Mosharraf, Hossain, Monir Hossain and Kazi Rafic.

Addressing thy rally the JCD lead- ers demanded immediate relese of their leaders and activists and its President Shahiduddin Chowdhury Ani and Nasiruddin hmed Pintu. They also blamed, Chhatra League (S-P) as they did not allow their members to come to their respective hells.

They urged the government to release their leaders immediately otherwise they expressed their vow to laknch greater movement against the present government.