

DU girl student assaulted by teacher

Varsity Correspondent

A girl student of the Public Administration Department of Dhaka University complained to the Vice-Chancellor Prof A.K. Azad Chowdhury, a week ago, of being sexually assaulted by a teacher of International Relations on November 29.

In a written complaint to the VC, the victim stated that she had gone to the office room of the alleged teacher at the Arts building at about 2:30 p.m. to consult about the study and was sexually assaulted.

The Vice-Chancellor immediately formed a four-member probe body headed by Prof. Shahadat Ali to investigate into the case. The probe body has been asked to submit reports within 15 days.

Talking to the Bangladesh Observer, DU VC Prof. Azad Chowdhury said, "We will take action according to the report of the investigating committee."

The members of the probe body are: Prof. Shahadat Ali, Prof. Yusuf Haider, Dr. Afroze Jahan Ara and Registrar Mr. Mohammad Selim.
