Girl student's assault

DU probe body invites witnesses

Varsity Correspondent

The probe body formed by the Dhaka University authorities to investigate into the incident of sexual assault of a female student of the university by a teacher, requested the persons who have information about the incident to be present before the committee on December 15 at 4.30 pm at the VC's office to submit their informations.

The identity of the persons present before the committee will not be disclosed, says a Press release.

Earlier on November 29, a female Masters student of the Public Administration Department complained to the Vice-Chancellor that she was sexually assaulted by a Professor of International Relations at the Professor's Office Room.

The University authorities formed a probe body headed by Prof Shadat Ali on the next day and requested to submit its report within 15 days.
