DU programmes for Intellectual Day, Victory Day

Dhaka University has chalked out a number of programmes to mark the Martyr Intellectual Day on December 14 and Victory Day on December 16.

To pay homage to the martyr intellectuals the teachers, students and officials of the university will bring out a silent procession from the Aparajeyo Bangla at 7 am and lay wreaths on the graves of the martyrs on the university central mosque premises and at the mousoleums in different places including Jagannath Hall and other residential areas of DU.

They will also lay wreaths to the Mirpur Martyr Intellectual Mousoleum in the morning.

The programmes also include a discussion meeting with Vice-Chancellor of DU Professor A.K. Azad Chowdhury in the chair at the teachers, students centre (TSC) at 10 am.

Special prayers will be offered at the central and hall mosques for the salvation of the souls of martyrs.

The Victory Day programmes include hoisting national flag in the main buildings of the university, laying floral wreaths on the Savar Smrity Showdho in the morning and offering special prayers in all the mosques on the campus.

Similar programmes have also been taken up by the 'Dhaka University Shaheed Paribar' to mark the days, says a Press release.
