Strike observed in DU for second day

Varsity Correspondent

The two-day strike, enforced by different student organisations and general students in Dhaka University in protest against the increase in tuition fee and other charges, ended on Monday.

Ganotantrik Chhatra Oikya (GCO) and the general students announced fresh action programmes that include a token hunger strike in front of the office of the Vice-Chancellor of the university on August 2 protesting the same issue.

General students under the banner of a "committee for resisting fee-hike", Ganotantrik Chhatra Oikya (GCO), BNP's student front Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) and JSD back Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) gave the call for the two-day strike beginning from Sunday in the university protesting the enhancement of tuition fee and other charges by the university authorities.

On Monday, the second day of the two-day strike, the academic and administrative activities of the university could not be held. The classes and the examinations scheduled for Monday were not held. The administrative building, all the faculty buildings and the Central Library of the university were under lock and key.

The general students and different student organisations including GCO and JCD brought out processions.
