Varsity officers observe work abstention

Varsity Correspondent

The officers of all the universities of the country observed a full-day work abstention on Monday, the first day of the seven-day programme called by the Inter-University Officers' Federation (IUOF).

The federation began the strike to press home their four-point demand, which includes representation of officers in all the bodies of the universities including Senate and Syndicate, amendment of pay-scale, fixing up retirement age of the officers at 65 and stoppage of curtailing 20 per cent from their Pension
