JCD cadres still controlling DU campus

DU Correspondent

Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) cadres are still controlling the entire Dhaka University campus with the help of outsiders.

On Monday, some 100 JCD cadres, mostly outsiders paraded the campus. During their patrol the JCD cadres carried firearms and cocktails.

JCD cadres also established their full control in all the 12 male and four female Halls.

No leaders and activists of Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) were seen on the campus or any halls in last two days.

The leaders and activists are now staying outside the campus fearing JCD attack.

On Saturday, the JCD cadres attacked the BCL leaders when they were trying to gather at TSC area. The JCD cadres opened fire and blasted bombs during the attack. They also set fire to a motor bike of a BCL leader. At least 20 leaders and activists were injured in the attack.

BCL leaders urged the University authorities to ensure peaceful co-existence of all the student organisations in halls as well as on the campus.

They vowed to call strike on the campus if the authorities fail to insure their security.

BCL sources said that they could return to the campus in the
