7/10 JCD men hurt in factional clash at BL College

Our Correspondent

KHULNA, June 3:-At least 10 Chhatra Dal activists were injured in a factional clash at Government BL College of Daulatpur on Saturday morning in the city following an altercation centering the committee forming of BCD at BL College unit.

Witnesses said, Dablu-Sayeed group along with some outsiders conducted a sudden attack with Ramdaos and sticks upon the other faction at about 11 am today (Saturday). They went on a rampage to the Subodh Chandra hall, only Hindu hostel of BL College. They also broke window glasses of the administrative building. At least 10 activists of JCD were injured, 6 of them critically for the attack of Dablu-Sayeed group. Critically injured activists were admitted to KMCH. Being informed police rushed to the spot and brought the situation under control.
