62 from Shymoli

Police picked up 62 students from Shymoli cinema hall at noon on (Saturday) for their alleged forcible entry into the hall to witness a Bangla cinema, reports UNB.

Police sources said about 100 students of Bangla College of Mirpur entered the hall forcibly without tickets to watch the newly released Bangla cinema "Sonia".

On a complaint from the hall manager, police rushed to the spot and picked up 62 students from the hall but some others managed to escape.

However, a regular cinegoer alleged that the hall management always sold most of the tickets to black marketeers at higher price. They even do not open the sales counter before the show.

The students might have entered the hall forcibly failing to procure tickets from the counters, he said.
