Varsity student shot dead

Staff Correspondent

Bazlur Rahman Khan, popularly known as Pagla Shahid, a student of MA final year of the University of Dhaka, was shot dead at Mohsin Hall by some unknown assailants at about 8-45 p.m. on Sunday.

A resident of Surya Sen Hall, Bazlur Rahman went to Mohsin Hall in the evening to meet some of his friends residing there in room No. 357.

According to reports some unknown persons entered the room and shot him point blank range. He was immediately taken to the P.G. Hospital where the doctors present declared him dead.

Bazlur Rahman's body, according to reports, was taken back to Mohsin Hall. But sometime later his body was sent to Surya Sen Hall.

The police, who visited the place of the incident, took away the body from Surya Sen Hall around 11 P.M. for post-mortem at Dhaka Medical College Hospital.

Bazlur Rahman, who comes from Patuakhali, was a student of history. Also a leader of the Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal, Bazlur Rahman was one of the nine students expelled by DU authority.

Police, however, did not make any arrest.

Meanwhile, high tension is prevailing on the campus following the killing of Pagla Shahid.
