DU VC to resign

Varsity Correspondent

Prof. Abdul Mannan, Vice-Chancellor of Dhaka University indicated his decision to resign at the meeting of the provosts of the university halls on Tuesday. His normal four-year term expires in June next.

Prof. Mannan is learnt to have decided to quit assuming responsibility of the administration's failure to contain terrorism on the campus.

Then contacted the provost of a hall who wanted to remain unidentified, said that the Vice-Chancellor informed the provosts of his decision and asked them to take necessary measures in this regard. The decision of the Vice-Chancellor to resign came only two months before completion of his four-year term.

In the meeting some of the provosts requested the Vice-Chancellor to change his decision and complete the term till June next.

Prof. Abdul Mannan was appointed Vice-Chancellor of Dhaka University in February 1986 following the resignation of the then Vice-Chancellor Prof. Shamsul Huq. Prof.
