DU situation tense, officials on strike

Varsity Correspondent

The campus heard several rounds of gun shots in the small hours of Sunday. There was, however, no report of any injury. Gun shots were heard from the direction of Surya Sen Hall as well as Sgt Zahurul Haq Hall.

A tense situation is prevailing on the campus. Police and BDR are patrolling the campus.

BSS adds:—Several rounds of gun fire were heard around noon from the Science Annex Bhaban area of Dhaka University Sunday.

Eyewitnesses said some armed youngsters tried to enter Fazlul Haq Hall but having failed, they came to the Annex Bhaban. They left the place after firing several rounds of gunshots.

Meanwhile, the administrative work in Dhaka University came to a halt on Sunday, the first day of a three-day strike by all the officials of the university.

The Dhaka University Officers Association made the strike call earlier to press their 13-point demand including inclusion of their representatives in Senate and Syndicate and reconstruction of the pay scale.

The meeting of Dhaka University Environment Council (DUEC) will be held today (Monday) at 12 noon.

Prof. M. Maniruzzaman Miah, Vice-Chancellor of University has convened the meeting to discuss the prevailing campus situation and DUCSU polls.

All members of the council have been invited to attend the meeting.
