DU situation reviewed

Continued terrorism and deterioration in teacher and student relationship figured prominently at a meeting at Dhaka University with Vice-Chancellor Prof. Moniruzzaman Miah in the chair, reports BSS.

Describing the present situation in the campus as "unbearable", the meeting expressed the apprehension that it might explode at any moment and take a dangerous turn.

The meeting noted that exchange of fire is a regular feature, but again it has been observed that police action in the halls yield no result, a Press release said. Only a joint effort of the Government, political parties, university authority, teachers and students could help contain terrorism, the meeting further felt.

The meeting was attended by members of Senate and Syndicate, deans, provosts of residential halls, proctors, departmental chairmen and presidents and secretaries of various associations within the university attended the meeting.

The meeting resolved that appropriate actions would be taken through disciplinary committee on terrorist acts against whom enquiry report have been received.
