

Dental College admission

Applications for admission in the first year BDS course of the Dacca Dental College have been invited in the prescribed forms obtainable from the college office says an official announcement.

The last date of receipt of applications by the Dacca Dental College is February 2.

Candidates with Physics, Chemistry and Biology in HSC having secured at least second divisions and 55 per cent marks in both the SSC and HSC examinations are entitled to apply for admission.