RUTA strike continues

Resentment
among RU
teachers

RAJSHAHI, Jan. 21.—A resentment among the teachers of Rajshahi University has been created centering the appointment of some pro-Jamaat teachers in some vital posts by the Vice-Chancellor of the University, Prof M. Yousuf Ali during the last two days.

Campus sources said the vice-Chancellor appointed a pro-Jamaat teacher Prof Sarwar Zahan Department of Zoology as the Provost of Shamsuzzoha Hall removing Prof Abdur Rahman Siddikey 16-month ahead of expiring of his provost tenureship. The sources further said, Prof Abdur Rahman Siddikey is one of the main figure of the present anti-VC movement.

The Vice-Chancellor also appointed a pro-Jamaat teacher Prof Noor Muhammad, Department of Geography as the student adviser of the University. Prof S.Q.G Mahtabwali was appointed as the chairman of Military Science Department.

A meeting of Syndicate held last night allotted seven seats in the Zeberry Guest House allegedly violating the rules and regulations of the university and this decision created a resentment, among the teachers.

Rajshahi University Teachers' Association (RUTA) in a statement vehemently condemned the newly appointment and allotment of rooms in the guest house by the VC.

Meanwhile, the 13th consecutive day of the indefinite strike called by RUTA and All Party Students Unity (APSU) demanding immediate removal of the Vice Chancellor of the university passed today without any academic and administrative functions of the university.
