Ctg Varsity opens

Chittagong Office

CHITTAGONG, Oct. 19: The University of Chittagong opened today after 18 days Autumn and Durga Puja vacation.

The University campus which beset will political turmoil for the past one year passed off the opening day peacefully. Although the turn out of students on the first was relatively poor, the campus again hummed with life. The students came to the campus and attended their classes through strict check of the law enforcing agency men at Chittagong University gate.

However, the five dormitories of the university remained occupied by the resident students despite the vacation.

The different student bodies at the university did not give political programmes on the opening day. The Police and Bangladesh Rifles personnel are posted at the University gate to maintain law and order. Notwithstanding (See Page 10 Col. 7)
